SUBSTANTIAL BRIDGES ON SCENIC LA HONDA ROAD

Barrett & Hilp, the contractors, who have done some fine construction work in the county, have just completed a 100-foot concrete bridge near the Tichenor place at La Honda and have begun work on a second bridge near Woodruff at the same place. Both bridges have a beam of forty feet, which is a departure in bridgework in this county. When the second bridge is finished there will be no more wooden bridges on the La Honda road between the mountain top and San Gregorio.

Blanchard & Brown and Mahoney Bros., who are constructing the new roadway to La Honda, the former on the west side of the mountain, and the latter on the east side, have nearly completed the preliminary work of grading. When the roadway is completed the drive will be one of the most attractive in the county, being of easy grade and through a country unrivaled for its scenic beauty.

Fraternal Aid Reception

The election of Chas. T. Cook of Redwood Council, to the Presidency of the Fraternal Aid Union District Convention, prompted the reception which was given him Tuesday evening by the members of Redwood Council. Several visitors from Palo Alto and Mountain View were present. During the evening short speeches were made by Mr. Cook, Mrs. Sherman of Palo Alto, the Supreme Guide, and others. Mrs. John Hall recited an extract from the Court Scene of Julius Caesar, Miss Stella Sahlberg sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Annie McKay, and Miss Lida Ruth Hall played a piano solo. At the close of the meeting the guests were invited into the banquet room, where tables were set and everyone enjoyed a social hour. Later, dancing and card games were popular.

Red Cross Donations.

The local Red Cross society returns thanks for the following contributions: Methodist church $10, Congregational church $12.25, a friend $1.75, Woman's Club $76, total $100, which amount has been forwarded to the national headquarters. Thanks are also returned to the local papers, th Pacific Gas and Electric Company, the manager of the Alhambra and the musicians' union for generous donations.

LA HONDA ROAD BUILDERS ENTERTAINED AT "UPENUF."

The trail blazers who are building the new La Honda road laid aside their picks and steam shovels, hammers, drills, time books and commissary accounts for a few hours last Saturday night and devoted themselves exclusively to fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Livermore threw open their mountain-side home to their friends and a glorious time for all was the result.

Among the invited were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Regan, Mr. and Mrs. F. Dorley, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith, E. J. Hadley, G. Shannon, Frank Taylor, W. L. Miller, Sam Harvey, J. A. Kelly, Oscar Weinberg, A. M. Jolif, E. L. Knight, Evelyn Livermore.

Mrs. Dora Feliz assisted Mr. and Mrs. Livermore in entertaining the guests.

Events at Woman's Club.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club attracted many member and guests to the clubhouse on Thursday afternoon, when Robert C. Root of Berkeley gave an interesting address on "Peace." A social hour closed the afternoon. The fortnightly card party of the club was given Tuesday evening. Mrs. Sarah Wentworth and Mrs. Frank P. Wentworth were the hostesses. Next Thursday afternoon the club will give an old-fashioned Thanksgiving at the clubhouse. Mrs. Eva and Mrs. Lippman will be the hostesses.

Young Couple Quietly Wed.

Harland Mansfield, the son of the Sheriff, and Miss Hazel Winter were quietly wedded yesterday at noon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. M. Hester, the bride's uncle, at Los Altos. Miss Winter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Winter, and until recently was one of the efficient teachers in the local grammar school. Mr. Mansfield is employed as a machinist in the Camino garage. The couple are away on their wedding tour and on their return will reside inn this city.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

SHOULD HEED THE WARNING.

While the movement for state wide prohibition in California met with a somewhat decisive defeat at the recent election, the strong minority vote cast in its favor should be heeded as an imperative warning by thos interested in the liquor business. The mere fact that a considerable majority of the people were not ready to see an important industry of the state destroyed does not indicate that a majority—or even a very considerable number—of the peole of the State intended that the liquor dealer shall forever be permitted to conduct his business unbridled, or that the vicious pratices too often manifested in the retail sale of liquor are to be much longer countenanced.

If those who are engaged in the manufacture of wines and beers hope to be permitted to continue their business, they must bend every endeavor to see that the liquor traffic is shorn of many of its evils. They must see to it that the retail sale of their products is conducted with a due regard to the demands of public decency. If they regard the saloon as a necessary channel for the disposal of their products, upon them must rest the burden of seeing that this business is purged of its undesirable elements and its immoral tendencies removed.

That the saloon business, if it is to be allowed to continue, must be radically reformed, no considerate person will question. Undoubtedly ther are a vast number of decent and honest intentioned men in the saloon business. No one can question that many of these are conducted with every possible regard for decency. Unfortunately for these, it must equally be admitted that to a very considerable extent the opposite is true. Many men are ingaged in the business who have no regard for personal or public morality, whos sole aim is the making of profit. regardless of the means by which it is obtained. If the business is to long continue, this latterclass must be drive out and for their own interests the manufacturers should take without delay decisive and effective steps in this direction.

Should Fill Short Term.

Dr. C. V. Thompson of Pescadero, the recently elected supervisor from the fifth township, was in Redwood City this week. It is to be hoped that Governor Johnson will appoint Dr. Thompson Supervisor to fill the unexpired term of Dr. D. E. Blackburn. Dr. Thompson could familiarize himself with the duties of his office and would be of infinitely more value to his district than someone who would serve but one and one-half months.

Objects to Jail Location.

[Communicated]

Of the varied things that have happened in a decade in Redwood City, nothing is more striking than this proposition to place a jail on the lot occupied by the Drew building, and right opposite the Sequoia Union High School. Various lots to the Northeast of the courthouse have been considered; and a few menhave been influential enough to push the jail out of their end of the town. The people of this town and high school district, are wanting in all the elements of true public spirit if they permit the jail to be placed where it will be a menace to the boys and girls of today and tomorrow, and a discredit to the future of the town as a place where cultured and worthy people will care to come to live.

The County of San Mateo is not so hard pressed for a jail site that it needs to perform an act that as soon as it is consummated will be forever regretted by those officials who may bring it about. It is doubtful whether any other California county seat would give such a proposition a second thought. Towns like men can commit suicide, but the authors of the suicidal act are sure to protest that they did not know the gun was loaded.

When the school buildings were placed where they are, no doubt some "forward-looking" citizens thought and said better sites could have been found elsewhere. But the schools are fixed for the next fifty years or more. The library has been located near them. With the courthouse they constitute a civic center that attracts the attention and favorable comment of visitors and prospective homeseekers. It is now in order to spoil utterly that which brings us more credit and attention than any other feature we can offer, except our climate, and men's wisdom did not provide that.

As an object lesson, the jail might have a use, placed right in front of the school buildings; but the most enterprising towns have so far failed to furnish such means of instruction, and, bad as we are, we don't need it. Some years ago, during a moral spasm, the saloons were forced away 200 feet from either school. Now we are to put the county jail in the vacated territory. It will be difficult to prove we have gained anything. Once prisoners were executed in public, and such occasions were gala days. Now few cities ever placed jails on prominent streets, and none place them near school buildings or churches. If they did no harm, they are utterly out of place. If you want to harden boys and girls, place the jail where they can't help looking at it. It will make the path from school seat to jail cell easier to travel. None of us want to help bring about such disasters. Architecturally, it will do the town no end of harm. There is no way to make a jail presentable. It naturally belongs on a back street, and as far from homes as you can get it.

The city council has encouraged the planting of shade trees along the streets, and other means of beautification. They have forced citizens to build curbs and sidewalks and, even streets, that the town may hold its own among the live municipalities. They have sent members of the council and other city officers annually at public expense to learn what is best to do, to properly develop a town. And nobody has brought back a report that they have found cities or counties locating jails in front of their schools.

One cannot help wondering why the jail cannot remain where it is. The purchase price of a lot will be saved and it will be far enough from homes not to menace them. We need a new one bad enough, heaven knows. But another generation will probably find a better way of treating prisoners than locking them up in jail. It will try to do more to keep them out than it does now. The only reason we have heard advanced for moving the jail site nearer the courthouse is the bad effect of the spectacle of prisoners in handcuffs led through the main street. And now we are asked to neutralize that harm to prisoners and others by the greater wrong of placing the jail in constant view of those attending our schools. If this question were submitted to a referendum vote of the people of San Mateo county, as it ought to be there is little doubt they would decide to save the price of the lot amounting to $24,000 to $26,000 and build the jail on the present site. If the Supervisors want to find how promptly the people will decide this matter let them try submitting it to their judgment There is one thing certain and that is the fact that no self-respecting community will ever tolerate the location of a jail in front of their school building as here proposed

GRAPE GROWERS PROPOSE TO CURB SALOON EVILS

Theodore A. Bell, attorney for the Board of Directors of the California Grape Protective Association, in a lengthy communication to the press of the State makes the following suggestions regarding the regulating of the retail sale of liquor. These suggestions will take the form of an act to be presented to the next legislature for passage. These suggestions should be carefully studied by all interested:

"The hour has struck for sweeping reforms in the retail distribution of intoxicating liquors in California. In proposing a legislative program that will effectually remedy many of the evils that grow out of the liquor traffic, the grape growers and wine makers of this State can very appropriately take the initiative, for our viticultural interests have always stood for temperance in the genuine sense of the word. Therefore, I respectfully submit the following program which I earnestly hope may be adopted and presented by you to the next session of the State Legislature:

"1. County option, except in cities having5,000 or more inhabitants.

"2 In licensed territory, not more than one saloon for each 1,000 inhabitants, or major fraction thereof, exclusive of table licenses for hotels and restaurants.

"3. Separate licenses to sell malt and fermented liquors, as distinguished from distilled liquors.

"4 No saloon license to be issued to an individual but only to property, the owner of the property, under heavy bond, to be responsible for the faithful observance of the law.

"5. Unlawful for any wine maker, brewer, distilled or wholesaler to have any pecuniary interest in a saloon.

"6. Midnight and Sunday closing.

"7. Anti treat law.

"8. Drastic laws concerning the sale of intoxicating liquor to minors, women, or to persons in an intoxicated or partially intoxicated condition.

"9. Such limitations and restrictions respecting the granting of licenses in license territory as will forever eliminate dives and deadfalls.

"10. When charges are filed before any magistrate alleging a violation of the liquor law, a jury of twelve men to be drawn from the body of the county to try thecase, and in the event of conviction, the license shall be suspended until the judgment shall be reversed or become final, and in case of final judgment of conviction, the license shall be forever revoked and no other license shall be issued in its stead.

"I shall be glad of an opportunity to present this program, in greater detail, and beg to remain very truly yours, Theodore A. Bell.

SUPERVISOR BLACKBURN ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS

The mortal remains of Dr. D. E. Blackburn were laid to rest in St. Mary's cemetery in Oakland yesterday afternoon. District Attorney Franklin Swart and the members of the Board of Supervisors of the county attended the funeral obsequies as well as many friends from Pescadero and other portions of the peninsula. The death of Dr. Blackburn at St. Mary's hospital in San Francisco last Wednesday wa a severe shock to his many friends. He was defeated for re-election as supervisor of the Fifth township on November 3d, by sixteen votes Prior to that, however, he was a very sick man. His sallow complexion and hollow cheeks were the cause of much comment among his associates at the last two meetings of the supervisors. He had a weak heart and it is thought the excitement of the campaign aggravated the complaint and he was finlly compelled to take to his bed.

Dr. Blackburn was one of the ablest members of the board of supervisors, showing at all times a wonderful grasp of county affairs and invariably a staunch champion of his district. He was always alert to the interests of his township and at times secured for it more than its share of favors from the board. Pescadero never had a better representative on the board of suprvisors of this county. Always considerate to those having business before that body he earned the esteem of all for his kindness and sense of justice.

Dr. Blackburn was born in Paso Robles June 26, 1874. He attended St. Mary's College and the college of destistry of the University of California. He traveled extensively and settled down to the practice of dentistry in Pescadero. He was serving his second term as supervisor at the time of his death.

BELGIAN RELIEF CALL IS MEETING PROMPT RESPONSE

Thn people of Redwood City are making prompt response to the general call for aid for the destitute women and children of Belgium. In accordanace with the suggestion of the council, definite steps were taken last Saturday to secure organized effort for local cooperation in the state-wide movement for relief. Representatives of the churches and fraternal organizations of the city met at the city hall and effected permanent organization. The meeting was called to order by Mayor Merrill, who, after stating the purpose of the meeting and outlining the need for immediate action, introduced D. E. Graham as chairman of the permanent committee. Mrs. J. N. Winter was chosen secretary. After a discussion of methods to be pursued, it was decided to open headquarters in the Drew Building on Broadway. These headquarters were opened Monday and will be kept open during the day and evening until the work has been completed, when a full report will be made to the public.

At a special meeting of the Board of Trade Thursday evening enthusiastic endorsement was given the work of the committee and a donation of $50 was made from the treasury of the Board, in addition to which several individual subscriptions were offered.

The Redwood City Grammar School contribuetd $18.47 to help along the good work.

COUNTY POULTRY SHOW DRAWING MANY VISITORS

The third poultry show of the San Mateo Poultry Association was opened in the Gymnasium on Thursday afternoon. It is without doubt the largest and best exhibition of high-class poultry yet held under the management of the association and it is safe to say it is one of the finest ever held in the state. The big exhibition was witnessed by large numbers yesterday, and last evening the gymnasium was crowded. The show will close tomorrow evening. There will be a record crowd today. The show is worth going miles to see. Birds of every variety are exhibited, small and large and of every color. A full list of the prizes will be published next week. The most prominent chicken fanciers of the county are exhibiting.

The Horace Hawes gymnasium, the use of which has been donated to the committee in charge, is an ideal location and furnishes spacious and comfortable housing for the show.

A splendid list of ribbons, medals, cups and trophies, also $137.50 in cash prizes, were offered as premiums. The awards were placed by W. S. Russell of Ottumwa, Iowa, poultry judge, and Arthur T. Pettis, who judged the rabbits, of which there is an extra large entry. BELOVED PASTOR CALLED TO HIS ETERNAL REWARD

Last Saturday evening the angel of death came to the Rev. Charles C. Kirtland, and after a never ending struggle of twenty months his tired body found rest in the Everlasting Arms. Mr. Kirtland came to Redwood City ten years ago in February and ministered and preached to the members of the Congregational church for eight years. His health was none too robust and he felt that he needed a change and accepted a call to Lodi. There he labored only a few months when he was stricken with apoplexy. For twenty months, with cheerful optimism he yearned for the time when he could get back into his ministry. Those who knew him best knew that this would never be but he never gave up the fight until he went to sleep with his father last Saturday night..

Charles Clifford Kirtland was born in Conecticut some forty-five years ago. He was graduated from Oberlin College and then came west and prepared for the ministry at the Pacific Theological Seminary in Oakland. His first pastorate was at Sebastopol. While there he married. The second call came from Sonoma, and from there with his wife and babies he came to Redwood. No minister ever had the love and hearty good will of his parishoners more than had Mr. Kirtland, and his sermons ever served as a source of inspiration to the hearers. He was not only a preacher to the people but he was their pastor as well, and he followed out the biblical comman of, "Feed my lambs," He was a courteous, sweet dispositioned man, almost boyish in his enthusiasm and good fellowship. But he had a depth of character and a resolution of purpose that gave him the respect of all who knew him, no matter what their creed might be. He was a hard student and could quote from the masters, but his favorite poem was the one which he usually gave when performing a funeral service and which was the prayer sent up for him by one of his former class mates:

"Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning on the bar
When I put out to sea.

"But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

"Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

"For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to meet my pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar."

Tuesday monring the remains were taken to the Congregational church and there surrounded by flowers in the place he had known and loved so well the last words were said by Rev. C. H. Stevens, Rev. Geo. Hinman, Dr. L. D. Rathbone and President C. S. Nash of the Pacific Theological Seminary His body was then laid to rest at Cypress Lawn by the side of his little daughter Kathrine. He leaves to mourn him his wife and two children, Margaret and Donald, his aged mother and a brother, John H. Kirtland of San Jose.

Charles C. Kirtland was a good man and he will live long in the memory of his friends.

HAPPY LA HONDA.

LA HONDA, Nov 11.—Pescadero was well represented Sunday. A jolly party composing Miss Perle Steele, Ralph and Bert Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Woodman and Mrs. M. Cumins came as guests of Mrs. J. S. Woods of Palo Alto, who entertained them at her cottage. La Honda was very lively on Sunday, a perfect day. Many auto parties from Redwood and points about the bay enjoyed picnics in our famed redwood groves.

F. W. Hebrank, the understudy of his uncle, A. H. Wetherbee, has gone to San Francisco for a short vacation.

Of the sixty-four on the register, fifty-four voted and seven of these were for a dry state.

Miss Annie L. Sears is spending a few days with friends in the city.

Miss Jessie Storie was at her parents' place in San Jose for the week's end.

Miss May Diaz will pass a few weeks at Manuel Francis' place near San Gregorio. She is a frequent visitor at La Honda and is an ideal horsewoman.

J. A. Hooper of Woodside is building a handsome bungalow on the land known as the "Old Chris Iverson Forty" on Pescadero creek in the Alpine. He recently purchased the property.

C. W. Lambert of Redwood is keeping bachelor hall at the Collins' house. His wife is visiting folks in far Virginia.

Al Wetherbee of La Honda (and Redwood) came home to vote.

COLMA INFORMATION.

COLMA, Nov. 12—On the 21st of this month, the Ladies' Auxiliary of this place will give an entertainment and ball in Colma hall for the purpose of defraying preliminary expenses. Everybody is willing to help out.

Don't forget the Native Sons' masquerade ball which takes place on the evening of the twenty-eighth of this month. A large attendance is desired.

Next Saturday evening, November 14, the Eagles will give their masquerade ball in Colma hall. It is sure to be a big time.

The carnival spirit is taking possession of Daly City. The days when the city will be in gala array for the first time are November 26, 27 and 28. On these dates our sister city will whoop it up. Help out the carnival but don't forget the Native Sons' masquerade.

Miss Katie Fuchs has regained her health and strength through a fortnight at Calistoga. She enjoyed every hour of her stay.

SAN GREGORIO.

SAN GREGORIO, November 11—No sooner had Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis recovered from the jolly charivari given them by the people of San Gregorio, when Mr. and Mrs. Leon McClellan (Lilla Roe) arrived from their honeymoon to Los Angeles. They were accorded a warm wlcome by their friends who wished them a long and happy wedded life. Last Sunday Robert Silva brought home his bride, who was Miss Bernice Todt, to their cosy cottage near Bellvale. On Sunday evening two automobiles of serenaders visited the newly-weds and showered them with good wishes. The health and happiness of the young couple was drunk many times.

B. Fassler Sr. has returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in the metropolis.

The election passed off quietly in San Gregorio last Tuesday. This town certainly being a "wet" one. Only 11 votes were cast for the "dry" amendment.

Miss "Billy" Johnson is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mesquite.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brotherton went to San Francisco last week with their baby, who was taken to the Red Cross Hospital at San Mateo.
